Report description:

In 2020, during the height of the pandemic, there was significant demand for bath and shower products with benefits such as antibacterial properties. Hand sanitisers were also hugely in demand (see below). However, in 2021, bath and shower returned to more normal trading conditions. That being said, with the pandemic still lingering, value and volume sales were still higher than before the onset of COVID-19. Body wash/shower gel remained the most popular product in terms of value sales, with liq...
