Report description:

Dogs are increasingly being given the status of a so-called "fur baby" in Hungary, with pet "parents" doting on their dogs and showing a willingness to spend more on dog food to improve their health and wellbeing. In line with this trend, owners are becoming more aware of their dog's health conditions and nutritional needs and are taking a more preventative rather than a reactive approach to their pet's health. This in turn is encouraging owners to buy specialist dog food based on the age of the...
