Report description:

COVID-19 had a strong negative effect on men's grooming sales in 2020, as men's grooming products are often used by men when going to the workplace, socialising or visiting the gym. As workplaces, foodservice outlets and gyms and other sporting and leisure/entertainment venues were closed in lockdown, sales fell steeply. Even as lockdown was eased, these locations remained subject to restrictions, which limited a quick rebound. Home seclusion and social distancing also reduced the need for Latvi...
