Report description:

Skin care witnessed a slowdown in retail volume and current value growth in 2020 as Coronavirus (COVID-19) conditions, such as lockdowns, social distancing, work-from-home policies and few opportunities for socialising, reduced the need for or frequency of skin care regimes. Nonetheless, most types of skin care continued to post positive retail volume and current value growth as heightened awareness of the importance of health and hygiene and a desire for pampering saw many consumers maintain ski...
