Report description:

Video games continued to enjoy a pandemic-driven boost to current value sales in 2021. Despite Sweden never enforcing a formal lockdown, social distancing was still recommended in 2021, and many people continued to stay indoors, and had a limited social environment. As a direct consequence, gaming continued to gain an increasingly important role as a social forum, where players had the opportunity to communicate with one another, in addition to video games being a form of pure entertainment. Whi...
