Report description:

Economy cat food has witnessed the strongest growth over the review period as the pandemic has impacted disposable income. Rising demand for dry cat food has continued to strengthen ahead of other sub-categories since dry dog food is usually cheaper but also has a long shelf life. In fact, economy dry dog food was the strongest category in cat food in 2022, in retail volume and current value terms. Higher inflation and rising costs is pushing consumers towards cheaper variants including private...
