Report description:

In 2021, colour cosmetics achieved solid growth in current value terms. In volume terms, however, the recovery in sales in 2021 was not enough to compensate for the decline observed during the lockdown in the previous year. During 2021 many Romanians continued to work from home and social events and gatherings remained limited compared to before the pandemic. Therefore, whilst demand for colour cosmetics grew in 2021, this growth was mainly in value terms as consumers opted for premium products.
