Report description:

The pandemic situation has continued to improve during 2022, as the vaccination rate is still increasing, resulting in a decline in COVID-19 cases. According to government statistics, 40% of the Indian population was fully vaccinated as of December 2021, and this will increase drastically by the end of 2022, as the government continues its efforts to vaccinate the entire population. This will result in the continued relaxation of mobility restrictions. In addition, for the first time since 2019,...
