Report description:

The dog population is expected to continue to increase in the Netherlands over 2022, with both the number and share of households owning a dog set to rise again, albeit gradually. While predicted to be slower than in 2020 and 2021, retail volume and current value sales are projected to continue on their upward trajectory in 2022. The exceptions are mid-priced dry and wet dog food, which are set to see marginal drops in retail volume and current value sales, as a level of polarisation influences...
