Report description:

Home and garden was heavily impacted by the state of the property and housing market in 2021. High demand for property was triggered by very low interest rates, with consumers looking for both old and new flats. Poles were seen to be shifting their savings into more stable and profitable investments, with property seen as good option. Due to the high demand for property, prices went up significantly, although demand still remained strong. With consumers investing in property this benefited sales...
