Report description:

Although 2021 has seen a large part of the restrictions on social distancing and travel eased, many Romanians are still reluctant to eat out because of lingering fears of contracting the virus; 2021 has seen multiple waves of new variants of COVID-19, and consumers are acutely aware of the danger. In addition, dine-in restaurants still had partial for most of the year, and access to these outlets has become available only to people with vaccination passes. This meant that many consumers ate at h...
