Report description:

Organic packaged food is well-accepted in Germany, with an official label for organic products established since 2001. These products are widely known with the organic label still in use even after the introduction of the European version in 2010 which has the same criteria, meaning that both are often displayed on the packaging of organic products. In addition to private label's established presence in the category, there are several popular brands such as Alnatura, which have been launching ne...
