Report description:

In 2022, demand for pet products continued to rise as consumers purchased toys, accessories, cages and beauty products for their cats. Despite inflationary pressures, stable disposable incomes combined with more time at home has raised the propensity to buy more pet products. Moreover, the extra time spent with pets at home during the pandemic made consumers appreciate their pets and better understand their needs. The volume of pet products consumed has risen, whilst current value growth registe...
