Report description:

Total volume sales of spirits witnessed a double-digit decline in total volume terms in 2020. This was largely due to the decline in on-trade sales brought about by the closure of bars, restaurants and other on-trade venues following the outbreak of COVID-19, with disruption to these outlets continuing through most of the year. In 2021, the spirits market bounced back, driven by the lifting of restrictions and reopening of hotels, restaurants and bars. Moreover, increasing celebrations and event...
