Report description:

Alcoholic drinks in Hong Kong witnessed an overall rapid rebound in total volume sales in 2021 as the majority of restaurants were largely unaffected by social distancing measures. While alcoholic drinks outlets were unable to operate past midnight due to government regulations, the fact they were able to conduct business at all meant that off-trade sales also witnessed further sales growth. In addition, the continuance of emerging trends from 2020 such as a further shift to e-commerce meant tha...
