Report description:

Dog food is set to maintain double-digit current value growth in 2022 in line with review period trends, as the number of households owning a dog in the United Arab Emirates continues to rise. Dog food growth rates peaked during the lockdowns of 2020 and 2021, with predictions for the category to gradually stabilise over 2022. As pet owners settle into the new hybrid working measures, dog ownership, including rising adoption rates, is having a positive impact on solid demand for dog food.
