Report description:

The COVID-19 crisis endured for most of 2021, which continued to have a significant impact on the tobacco industry. Due to COVID-19, many indoor smoking rooms, as well as outdoor smoking areas, were closed, as it was considered they were an infection risk, with people crowded together without wearing masks. Therefore, both local municipalities and private entities decided to shut down smoking areas to prevent the spread of cases of the virus from their managed smoking areas. This resulted in a r...
