Report description:

Even before the pandemic, wine was in trouble, with volume sales falling. In 2020, volume sales fell by a record fifth, due to COVID-19 restrictions. In 2021, there was a recovery, with volume sales recovering. Whereas before the pandemic, many older people used to have a glass of wine in a cafe with a friend, this changed in 2020 and continued into 2021 and spend switched to retail channels. However, this consumer group also bought higher quality wine through retail channels than what is usual...
