Report description:

Wine recorded a significant improvement in total demand in late 2021 due to the relaxed social distancing measures in the city. The new relaxed policies resulted in many consumers hosting weddings and other major events in their lives that had been delayed due to the pandemic, thus leading to greater sales for sparkling wine such as champagne. Catering businesses were a beneficiary of this scenario, as they were able to remain in business for most of 2021, while local on-trade businesses also wi...
