Report description:

During 2020, the rate of growth in off-trade volume sales of alcoholic drinks slowed significantly, while on-trade sales declined, as COVID-19 restrictions bit. During 2021, on-trade demand rebounded strongly, even though some pandemic restrictions remained in place for much of the year, while growth in off-trade volume sales accelerated sharply. In particular, there were far more social gatherings, such as birthday parties and weddings, during the year. This strong performance came in spite of...
