Report description:

The Czech beer market started to gradually stabilise from June 2021 when foodservice establishments were fully reopened. The EURO Football Championship also helped to revive on-trade consumption in June and July. Beer continued to be the least affected alcoholic drink by COVID-19 in 2021 as the beer culture has a strong tradition in the country. On-trade did not recover fully in 2021, but off-trade was successful to compensate for the foodservice losses, therefore total beer consumption reached...
