Report description:

Although the cider/perry category remains relatively small, it saw double-digit total volume and current value growth in 2021, after seeing a fairly static performance in 2020. During the review year, China gradually recovered from the pandemic, and businesses resumed their operations, driving strong growth in on-trade channels. Cider/perry is popular amongst younger people of legal purchasing age, particularly women, and growth was mainly driven by these consumer groups. In China, many young wo...
