Report description:

Cigarette sales in South Korea experienced a decline in 2021 as health-conscious consumers attempted to reduce their habit. In addition to pursuing healthier lifestyles noted over the past decade, recent changes have encouraged consumers to move away from cigarettes. Due to the prolonged impact of the pandemic, many consumers have spent significant time indoors and wearing a mask when outside of the home, both of which have had a negative effect on cigarette smoking. The nature of cigarettes als...
