Report description:

Despite a fifth wave of the pandemic hitting Hong Kong in early 2022, gum is set to see a strong recovery as consumers gradually resume greater levels of mobility outside of the home. This is especially relevant for this category as gum is often an impulse purchase made from a convenience store, a channel which accounts for over 50% value share in terms of distribution. Thus, the relaxation of social distancing measures means that Hong Kongers are spending longer outside of their homes and are m...
