Report description:

2021 started in lockdown and with low consumer sentiment among consumers in Germany. With non-essential businesses being closed and with Germans working and studying from home as much as possible, the need to change or wash clothes as frequently remained subdued, leading to only low growth in both retail volume and value sales of laundry care. Consumers also limited their use and made fewer purchases of products that complement washes, such as fabric softeners and most laundry aids, due to remot...
