Report description:

In Brazil, success in alcoholic drinks can be tough, as it is an already saturated industry, having one of the biggest consumer bases for beer and having high penetration of cachaca. However, 2020 and 2021 showed that there is plenty of space still left to explore, while also introducing a problem: the high cost of logistics. With this in mind, companies that wanted to have deeper penetration in the Brazilian market tended to focus on developing their own logistics, utilising e-commerce and the...
