Report description:

Since the second half of 2021, out of home mobility has shown signs of steady recovery, and consumers have been more confident about socialising away from home following the easing of most COVID-19 restrictions and the rapid roll-out of the vaccination programme. This benefited sales of snack bars in 2021, which are widely purchased on impulse for consumption on-the-go or when working out. This growth supported the category's partial retail volume recovery from the severe impact it experienced t...
