Report description:

In addition to being a staple at large social gatherings such as weddings and parties, wine is traditionally among the alcoholic drinks most commonly consumed when Azerbaijanis come together with friends and family in smaller numbers in private homes, particularly during meals. As a result, this category was especially hard hit by lockdown measures and the observance of social distancing rules introduced to curb the spread of COVID-19 in 2020, with off- and on-trade volume sales declining at dou...
