Report description:

After plummeting in 2020, on-trade sales recovered well in 2021, with total volume sales rising to exceed those seen in 2019. Despite a rebounding on-trade, the off-trade was also strong as at-home consumption remained popular. Low tax rates, the return of socialising and tourists to the country keen to explore new flavours, brands and experiences boosted demand. High mark-ups in the on-trade mean that off-trade sales dominate, while beer, seco and rum are the most popular in both channels.
