Report description:

Smoking tobacco achieved strong retail growth in 2021 following the decline the category suffered in 2020. A growing number of cigarette smokers are shifting to smoking tobacco products, particularly fine cut tobacco, which is used to roll one's own cigarettes. This is much less expensive than purchasing regular cigarettes (which are experiencing rising prices due to continued excise tax hikes) and, given that consumers continued to spend more time at home, they had more time to roll cigarettes...
