Report description:

The higher frequency of retail store visits in 2022 improved the performance of both chewing and bubble gum in Ireland. The re-opening of foodservice and many small grocers since the pandemic has also boosted purchases of gum and broadened distribution. Gum is used by many Irish consumers to help support teeth and mouth hygiene which is also driving demand.

Euromonitor International's Gum in Ireland report offers in-depth knowledge of the market at a national level, providing local insight and understanding unavailable elsewhere. In addition to the latest retail sales data 2017-2021, it identifies the leading companies, brands and retail outlets, and assesses the key trends and demographic shifts behind consumer demand and sales growth.
