Report description:

The rate of growth in retail constant value sales of savoury snacks accelerated during 2022, making it the top-performing category in snacks. However, this was largely driven by rising prices, as retail volume sales saw no more than a modest expansion. Rising raw material and energy costs were the main drivers of this inflation. These were exacerbated by the devaluation of the Egyptian pound in March. Some manufacturers responded to rising raw material costs by shrinking their pack sizes but lea...
