Report description:

Snacks is expected to register increased current value and volume growth in 2022. While inflation is expected to be high in 2022, as the war in Ukraine leads to rising global energy prices and supply shortages, it is expected that for the most part, players will refrain from passing price rises onto consumers. However, there could be a degree of shrinkflation, that is offering smaller volumes for the same price, especially in popular snacks such as sweet biscuits. The full opening up of society...
