Report description:

Spectacles will continue to see growing demand in 2022 due to the soaring myopia rates in the country. The age at which this condition is diagnosed is getting younger due to more children and adolescents spending excessive amounts of time in front of a computer, laptop, or smartphone screen. In the early phases of the pandemic, there were school closures to limit the spread of the virus. As such, most children were educated at home with classes given virtually. With some parents remaining wary o...
