Report description:

Due to the spread of COVID-19, the Tunisian government introduced several measures to limit the impact of the crisis. The spirits category was affected by these new measures, especially the closure of on-trade establishments as spirits are widely consumed in nightclubs, disco and bars by both locals and tourists. The positive sales performances of off-trade channels, such as supermarkets and hypermarket, could not compensate for the negative volume sales registered on-trade.

Euromonitor International's Spirits in Tunisia report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level. It provides the latest retail sales data (2017-2021), allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth.
