Report description:

The Chilean economy is expected to enter a period of recovery after being significantly impacted in 2020 at the peak of the pandemic. In a country with more than 80% of its citizens fully vaccinated at the end of 2021, many establishments have reopened, social activities are resuming, and life is entering a phase socially known as "new normality". As the government decided to relax restrictions previously implemented in 2020, sales of sugar confectionery improved in 2021. Chileans increased thei...
