Report description:

Experiential luxury, which is accounted for entirely by luxury hotels, is seeing dynamic growth in 2022, after multiple lockdowns and other government COVID-19 measures and travel restrictions severely reduced demand in 2020 and 2021. In early 2022, the government began to roll back its COVID-19 regulations as infection rates fell, with this also including the relaxation of travel restrictions. This provided a big boost to the recovery of downtown luxury hotels in key business and tourism destin...
