Report description:

The reopening of school and colleges in Ecuador is further driving the recovery of sugar confectionery in 2022. In the last quarter of 2021, face-to-face classes were gradually phased back in with 2022 being the first year that all students are back in the classroom. With more children on-the-go, impulse purchases of sugar confectionery have risen significantly bringing retail volume and current value sales back to pre-pandemic levels.

Euromonitor International's Sugar Confectionery in Ecuador report offers in-depth knowledge of the market at a national level, providing local insight and understanding unavailable elsewhere.
