Report description:

After the category growth seen in 2020 during the time of the COVID-19 pandemic, with consumers in home-seclusion and seeking a relief from stress, many tobacco products are now decreasing again in line with consumers returning to work and enjoying out-of-home activities again. Furthermore, consumers are increasingly aware of the levels of harmful chemicals in tobacco smoke and, as people return to more active lifestyles, they are also more health aware. Within this, many people are switching to...
