Report description:

In 2021, alcoholic drinks continues to be impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic, however the recovery has begun and off-trade consumption has slowly started to shift back to the on-trade. Likewise, the country is under political unrest due to the coup in 2020, which is naturally impacting all industries. However, strong recent investment in local beer brewing by global players Heineken and Carlsberg is a sign of the category's strong potential. However, many local people are teetotal, including many...
