Report description:

Having seen a marked decline in the previous year as a result of the COVID-19 crisis, beer volume sales stagnated in Uzbekistan in 2021. Indeed, the overall performance of beer was more positive than was originally expected. Many people were returning to offices, which adversely affected sales through off-trade channels. However, demand generated by the football championship in Uzbekistan and significant value growth on the part of the leading player by value, Carlsberg, contributed to a more po...
