Report description:

Cigars continued to expand at an impressive pace in 2021, with volume sales increasing at a high double-digit rate that was up dramatically on the one recorded in 2020. While growth was skewed by the fact that sales were emerging from a relatively low base, the category's performance was also lifted by improvements in confidence and spending power among consumers as North Macedonia's economy rebounded from the negative impact of the pandemic. Additionally, in line with the development of the loc...
