Report description:

Sales of cigars continued to enjoy steady growth in both value and volume terms in Pakistan in 2021. Cigars tend to be consumed in a leisurely manner and are targeted towards a niche market, namely the most affluent consumer group. The consumer base remains solid and unphased by economic challenges. However, an improving economy in Pakistan over the review period has led to a growing middle-income group in the country, driving up demand for more luxury goods, while the presence of lower-priced C...
