Report description:

Retail volume sales of gum were further frustrated in 2022, with decline expected in the year overall due to regional outbreaks of the Omicron variant of COVID-19. The two-month lockdown in Shanghai and tight controls in other cities, such as Beijing, significantly reduced social contact, therefore limiting the need for gum. In addition, a large number of purchases of gum are made on impulse at the checkout. As consumers shifted to online shopping during the outbreaks, and visited offline channels...
