Report description:

Retail volume sales of headphones is set to continue to grow during 2022. During 2020 and 2021, demand for headphones was strongly supported by the fact that many more people were working or studying from home due to COVID-19 restrictions. This outweighed the economic shock of the pandemic, which led many local consumers to reduce their discretionary spending. In some cases, they wanted headphones to block out distractions or to enable them to talk to others. More generally, the increased use of...
