Report description:

Although e-readers experienced somewhat of a respite in 2020, retail sales returned to double-digit declines in 2021 with a further drastic fall in sales predicted for 2022. Consumers returning to in-store shopping, including bookstores, suggests volume declines are set to be much higher in absolute terms than in current value terms. Indeed, in current value growth terms, e-readers is expected to experience single-digit declines, being bolstered by manufacturers raising prices due to component s...
