Report description:

The rate of growth in retail volume sales of sugar confectionery slowed during 2022 but remained robust. Children and adolescents are the main consumers of these products, with boiled sweets and lollipops particularly popular. Cameroon's youthful population structure means that this is a large addressable market. Parents often give sugar confectionery to their children as a reward for good behaviour or as a treat. They are also consumed at school and at birthday parties. During 2022, demand for...
