Report description:

Despite the relaxation of all COVID-19 restrictions in February 2022 and the fact that sugar confectionery is frequently consumed at social gatherings in the Dominican Republic, the category will record only slight retail volume growth in 2022. This is because sugar confectionery is considered a non-essential purchase. Given that high inflation rates are reducing consumers' disposable incomes, they are being more careful with their spending habits and focusing their money on the essentials. Neve...
