Report description:

At the height of the pandemic in 2020, sales of in-car entertainment declined strongly in South Africa. This was largely the result of the strict lockdowns that were imposed to contain the initial spread of the virus, which halted travel for most of the year. In addition, most of the employed population worked from home and hence, did not use their cars. Consequently, demand for in-car speakers, in-car navigation, as well as in-dash media players fell, as consumers diverted their spending toward...
