Report description:

Sales of laptops have returned to growth in retail volume terms in 2022, while sales of desktops continue declining as more students and professionals are using laptops for their studies and work. Laptops experienced overwhelmingly strong growth in 2020 as consumers were forced to work and study from home due to the outbreak of COVID-19. The portability of laptops appeals to large numbers of consumers, especially as people adopt increasingly flexible work arrangements. Although demand for laptop...
